50 year-old Susan Paight was last seen in Dickinson, Texas on February 8th 2020. It is unknown what color, style or type of clothing that Susan was wearing. Susan is driving her 2005, black Toyota Scion with Texas license plates of HZN-3035. Susan's vehicle is similar to the one pictured above, and it has several Houston Texans bumper stickers on the back window & side windows. The door handle on the driver's door is broken. Susan is disabled, and she has an external morphine pump and a Colostomy. Susan has straight blonde hair down to her mid-back, and is missing all of her teeth. She is fair in complexion, and she has the tattoo of the letter "T" on her left breast, two cherries tattooed on her buttocks and a rose / tribal tattoo on one of her ankles. Susan is in desperate need of her medication. If you have seen Susan Paight since her reported disappearance, if you know of her current whereabouts, or if you have any information whatsoever concerning Susan's disappearance; please call the Dickinson, Texas Police Department at (281) 337-4700 – or call Texas EquuSearch at (281) 309-9500.
